Welcome to Curlew Lake

Curlew Lake State Park is a relaxing camping park on the shores of 5.5 mile-long Curlew Lake in northeast Washington. The 123-acre park, with its green lawns and shade trees, offers beautiful lake vistas of pine-covered hills for visitors who enjoy the warm summer days and cool summer nights.

The park offers a variety of recreational activities, from bird-watching, wildlife watching and fishing, to boating, canoeing, kayaking, hiking, swimming and picnicking.

In the community nearby, visitors can take advantage of activities, including fossil digging at Stone Rose, gold-panning, antique stores, the Ferry County Fair and seasonal festivals. To the north in Canada, tours, festivals and more outdoor recreation opportunities are available.
