Dash Point State Park

is situated on Puget Sound in Western Washington and is a very popular park for water recreation. This 398-acre camping park features 3,301 feet of saltwater shoreline. The beach provides unobstructed views of the Sound and excellent opportunities for sea-life study.

The park features a sandy beach perfect for relaxing, flying kites or bird watching. Visitors may explore 11 miles of hiking and biking trails or enjoy swimming, fishing, skimboarding and sailboarding. Small, hand-launched boats, such as canoes and kayaks, are allowed.

Overnight accommodations

The park offers 111 standard campsites and 27 utility sites that accommodate RVs up to 40 feet. For large camping groups, the park also has a group camp that accommodates up to 96 guests. The group camp features a large open area and 12 smaller sites.

Dash Point also offers seven cabins for overnight rental. Each cabin is furnished with a queen-size futon, bunk bed that sleeps three, table with four chairs and small end table. Outside is a picnic table and fire pit with grate. Bathrooms and showers are nearby. All cabins are heated, but visitors should take along blankets and warm clothing as evenings can be cool. Pets are only allowed in cabin C1 with a $15 pet fee per night. Each cabin can accommodate up to five guests.

Park amenities and facilities

Dash Point State Park offers several amenities and facilities to make your visit more enjoyable and comfortable, including:

- Two covered picnic shelters, reservable by calling (888) CAMPOUT or the park at (253) 661-4955
- 73 unsheltered picnic tables, available first come, first served
- Amphitheater
- Modern restrooms with hot showers (in campground)
- Modern restroom at the beach

Welcome to Dash Point
