Welcome to Potlatch

Potlatch State Park is located along 5,700 feet of Hood Canal shoreline. The 57-acre camping park is home to a variety of plant and wildlife. Four major rivers lie within a 30-mile radius of the park, including Skokomish, Hamma Hamma, Duckabush and Dosewallips.

Activities popular at Potlatch State Park range from oyster harvesting and clam digging to kite flying, wind surfing and hiking. The accessible waterfront and easy descent is appealing to scuba divers, and kayaking is a common day-trip activity at the park.

Overnight accommodations

The park offers standard and utility campsites for overnight stays. There are 36 standard campsites, 35 utility campsites that accommodate RVs up to 60 feet long and two primitive campsites for hikers and bicyclers. In the winter, camping at the park is first come, first served.
