Illahee State Park is a 75-acre marine camping park with 1,785 feet of saltwater frontage on Port Orchard Bay, 3 miles northeast of Bremerton. The park has plenty of parking space, lots of fresh air, facilities for a number of outdoor activities and access to a wide variety of water sports.

The park features a veterans’ war memorial and the last stand of old-growth timber in Kitsap County. One of the largest yew trees in the nation grows in this park. The beach provides great views of Puget Sound.

The park also offers a variety of recreational activities, including boating, diving, fishing, personal watercraft, horseshoes, softball, volleyball and a children’s play area. Other activities include both geocaching and metal detecting.

Overnight accommodations

The park offers 23 tent spaces, two utility spaces, one dump station, four restrooms (two accessible to people with disabilities) and two showers. Tent spaces are suitable for any RV, but provide no hookups. Maximum site length is 40 feet (may have limited availability). Camping reservations may be made for arrival dates between May 15 and Sept. 15 by calling (888) CAMPOUT (888-226-7688) or online at www.park.state.wa.us. Reservations may be made up to nine months in advance.

Park history

Illahee State Park was established in 1934, by a land donation of 13 acres from Kitsap County.

Park amenities and facilities

Illahee State Park offers several amenities and facilities to make your visit more enjoyable and comfortable, including:

- Four reservable picnic shelters with electricity, 90 unsheltered picnic sites. For kitchen shelter reservation, call (360) 478-6460
